Fennemore Craig Attorneys Listed in Benchmark Litigation's Under 40 Hotlist

PHOENIX, AZ - Fennemore Craig, a leading Mountain West law firm, announced James Goodnow, Sean Hood, and Jessica Post, directors in the firm's Phoenix office, have been recognized in Benchmark Litigation's 2018 Under 40 Hotlist.

"Our attorneys are encouraged to develop the depth of experience necessary to provide the highest level of client service," said Steve Good, the chair of Fennemore Craig's management committee. "We congratulate James, Sean and Jessica for being recognized by Benchmark Litigation as leaders among their peers."

Goodnow is a member of Fennemore Craig's Management Committee and chairs the firm's Diversity and Retention Council. He focuses his practice in the area of plaintiffs' catastrophic injury and wrongful death litigation. Goodnow earned his J.D. from Harvard Law School and his B.S. from Santa Clara University. He frequently provides legal commentary and analysis to national and local media.

Hood is an experienced trial attorney and water lawyer. He has been lead counsel in every trial to resolve contested water right claims in Arizona's general stream adjudications. Hood has 15 years of experience advising Fortune 500 companies and local businesses on a wide variety of complex commercial disputes and litigating these issues at the trial and appellate levels in state and federal courts. Hood earned his J.D. from Notre Dame Law School and his B.S. from Santa Clara University, and he is licensed in Arizona, Colorado, and Nevada.

Post assists companies in employment discrimination, wage and hour, restrictive covenant and trade theft matters, and complex commercial disputes. She practices in both state and federal court and recently completed a four-week trial securing a defense verdict in a professional negligence case. Post earned her J.D. from the University of Arizona and her A.B. from Dartmouth College.

Benchmark Litigation's Under 40 Hotlist recognizes practitioners, all aged 40 or younger, as the most promising emerging talent in their respective litigation communities in the US and Canada by peers and clients.
