Greater Phoenix Chamber of Commerce's Board of Directors Confirms Fennemore Craig Attorney as Chair

Business and Finance Director brings her background to influential Phoenix business organization

PHOENIX, AZ - Fennemore Craig, a leading Mountain West law firm, announced Sarah Strunk, chair of the firm's board of directors, has been elected chair of the Greater Phoenix Chamber of Commerce \(GPCC\) board of directors. In her role with the GPCC she will continue to lead the Chamber's political advocacy and focus to help all businesses connect and prosper.

"Our team at Fennemore Craig is really dedicated to finding ways to serve in their communities," said James Goodnow, president and chair of Fennemore Craig's management committee. "We're very proud of Sarah and her work for clients and in the work she does throughout our community; she will be a valuable contributor in this role."

Strunk practices in the area of business and finance law, with an emphasis on mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, securities compliance and public-private partnerships. She has substantial experience with international sales contracts, public records laws, open meeting laws, privacy obligations and duties for privacy breaches and Foreign Corrupt Practices Act compliance. In addition to her position with the GPCC, Strunk serves as a member of the Board of Trustees for the Rocky Mineral Law Foundation. She earned her LL.M. from New York University, her J.D. from the University of Kansas and her B.A. from Wichita State University.

The Greater Phoenix Chamber of Commerce promotes regional prosperity, serving as a catalyst for economic vitality and strong community. The Chamber's board of directors includes appointed representatives from many of the Valley's most influential organizations, companies and institutions.
