

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release
December 5, 2019

Fennemore Craig's Scott Day Freeman Elected to the Defense Research Institute's Board of Directors

PHOENIX, AZ - Fennemore Craig, a leading law firm in the Mountain West, announced that Scott Day Freeman, a director in the Business Litigation practice, was recently elected to the Board of Directors of the Defense Research Institute (DRI) as its Pacific Regional Director.

"The Defense Research Institute is a valuable organization that engages in critical dialogue about areas of practice and offers tools and resources to attorneys with the aim of helping them provide excellent service to their clients," said Freeman. "I'm pleased to join DRI's board as the Pacific Regional Director and am looking forward to continuing to help advance its mission."

With more than 20,000 members across the country, the Defense Research Institute is the nation's leading organization of lawyers, in-house counsel and law firms that represent the interest of businesses and individuals in the commercial and tort defense litigation context.

About Fennemore Craig

For over 130 years, Fennemore Craig, a NLJ 250 firm, has provided high quality legal counsel to help clients thrive in a complex and constantly evolving business and legal landscape. Fennemore Craig goes beyond the expected to generate maximum value for its clients and to help them keep pace with the rate of change, protect their legal interests and identify opportunities. Today, the firm is uniquely poised to help fulfill needs that range from general counsel to niche legal specialties, works on issues ranging from water rights in the West, business formation, mining, gaming and cross-border trade and offers a deep understanding of the issues facing The New West. Learn more about its legal services at FennemoreCraig.com