The United States Legal 500 Name Recognizes Fennemore Craig's Real Estate Practice

PHOENIX, AZ – Fennemore Craig, a leading law firm in the Mountain West, announced that its Real Estate practice has been named to the Legal 500's list of top U.S. real estate law firms, the only Arizona-based law firm honored. The mention specifically highlighted the work of three prominent firm attorneys: James Bond, Steve Good and Jay Kramer. For 32 years, The Legal 500 has been analyzing and ranking the capabilities of law firms around the world to help corporate counsel get a clear snapshot of the market based on a methodology to evaluate the overall strength and depth of a practice group.

Fennemore Craig's real estate practice is a multi-disciplinary team working in collaboration with attorneys across a full-service firm to create possibilities for clients on a range of uniquely western issues like: data center development, natural resources, environmental and water law, as well as tax planning.

"It's an honor to see our real estate practice included on the U.S. Legal 500 list," commented Jim Bond, real estate practice chair at Fennemore Craig. "As one of the largest real estate practices in the Mountain West, we have a deep bench of attorneys who work tirelessly to deliver results for our clients and help them thrive. I'd like to congratulate the whole team for this well-deserved recognition – in particular, my colleagues Steve Good and Jay Kramer."

The Legal 500 rankings highlight the practice area teams who are providing the most forward-looking advice to help their clients thrive. The list is developed based on research and feedback from 300,000 clients worldwide, including submissions from law firms, research by the Legal 500 team and interviews with leading private practice lawyers.
