Joe Schenk Joins Fennemore Craig's Business Litigation Practice

PHOENIX, AZ – Fennemore Craig, a leading law firm in the Mountain West, announced that Joe Schenk joined the firm as Of Counsel in the Business Litigation practice of its Phoenix office.

“The word ‘legendary’ is seldom used, especially in the legal industry, but with Joe, it’s warranted. He commands the utmost respect from his peers, and his experience in healthcare law, especially at this turbulent juncture in our collective lives, makes him a great addition to our firm,” said James Goodnow, Fennemore Craig’s CEO. “We are thrilled that Joe is joining us and welcome him to our business litigation team.”

Schenk’s work focuses on healthcare law, commercial litigation and appeals, and he is a trusted business advisor to numerous healthcare clients, including institutional healthcare professionals, medical boards, group practices and physicians. For 31 years, he was a leader at Aiken Schenk Hawkins & Ricciardi P.C.

“I’m very excited to be joining the distinguished attorneys at Fennemore Craig, and I’m looking forward to the firm’s platform helping me better serve clients,” remarked Schenk. “I’m confident that the depth and breadth of the firm’s deep bench of talented legal professionals will lead to better outcomes for clients.”

Schenk earned his J.D., from the University of Michigan Law School, and is a former Judge pro tempore in Maricopa County Superior Court.
