Isabella Peek is an associate in our Reno office who works out of our Business & Finance practice group. Bella's work focuses on real estate transactions, M&A work, and the corporate formation process. She is also well-versed in international trade law, specifically in aiding companies in export compliance and conducting international trade-related diligence in M&A work.

Originally on the path to becoming an elite equestrian, Bella realized that she preferred a more community focused career path. Through the practice of law, she could more effectively impact businesses in her native Reno community, while continuing her passion for horses. She takes great pride in her work, and the ability to effectuate positive social change.

As you can imagine, outside of work, Bella can be found with her two horses and two donkeys. Bella and her boyfriend also enjoy hiking around Reno, reading, cooking and entertaining with a large group of extended family and friends.
