Brie Alford is an associate attorney who works in our Business Litigation practice group out of our Phoenix office. Brie has experience conducting legal research and drafting memoranda for client matters regarding real estate, healthcare, and business litigation, including breach of contract disputes.

From an early age, Brie loved to write short stories, and by the time she was a junior in high school, she was determined to use her persuasive writing skills to serve others as a lawyer. In law school, she served as an extern for Justice Bolick at the Arizona Supreme Court and pursued her passion for healthcare research with an externship at Phoenix Children's Hospital. As an attorney, she appreciates that each day presents a new and exciting legal challenge. She values her client relationships, and is fascinated by the kind and outgoing, business people that she has the privilege of working with.

Outside of work, Brie has studied abroad in Costa Rica and traveled extensively throughout Europe. She enjoys staying active by hiking, swimming, and snowboarding. On the weekends, you can find her scoping out new vintage shops in Phoenix.
