ANGELINA HOLGUIN

Angelina Holguin is a paralegal in our Trusts & Estates practice group who works out of our Phoenix office. Her experience includes paralegal positions in several different areas of the law, with the majority of her career spent in the criminal law area at the County Attorneys' office, prosecuting criminals. She also possesses family law and mediation experience.

Angelina started out in the criminal law area, and worked on obtaining her degree while she worked in the legal profession. As a criminal law paralegal, the majority of her time was spent investigating and prepping for trials, which she always found very exciting. She loves constantly learning about new areas of law, including civil law, criminal law and family law.

Outside of the office, you'll find Angelina baking, and hiking when the weather is cooler in the Valley of the Sun. She also loves spending time with her family.
