STEVEN D. MCGEE

Steven McGee is a business trial lawyer based out of our Fresno office, and his practice includes a wide range of commercial and real estate matters, with substantial emphasis on construction and real estate issues and business litigation. His clients include business entities, contractors, design professionals, real estate developers, and agribusiness firms. Steven has over 40 years of trial experience in state and federal courts, as well as commercial and judicial arbitration proceedings. He is an American Arbitration Association arbitrator, serving on its construction industry and commercial arbitration panels.

After completing law school at the University of San Diego, Steven practiced at Kimble, MacMichael & Upton for 35 years before joining Dowling Aaron in 2011. He believes clients trust him to look out for their best interests, and he takes great satisfaction in helping clients achieve successful resolution of pending disputes.

Steven has been invited to be a speaker at a number of Lorman and NBI seminars where he has presented with local judges on trial practice and trial techniques, and has been a featured speaker on topics including construction related remedies and mechanics lien laws. He is an "AV" rated attorney by Martindale-Hubbe and was selected for inclusion in the Northern California Super Lawyers[®] list (2006 through present), and a Super Lawyers[®] Top 100 Attorney in Northern California from 2008 through 2019.

Steven is married with five adult children, and he enjoys spending time with extended family, traveling, and is an avid San Francisco Giants fan. He supports a number of local charities including the Community Food Bank, Fresno Rescue Mission, Big Brothers Big Sisters, and the National Alliance on Mental Illness.
