ERIN BARBER

Erin Barber is a seasoned paralegal with a wealth of experience spanning multiple areas of law. Currently focused on business and civil litigation, insurance coverage, and construction law matters, Erin has a diverse background that includes employment law and securities litigation.

One of the most intriguing aspects of her career was working on an airplane crash litigation. Erin's career began in an era when discovery involved poring over roomfuls of bankers' boxes filled with documents. Today, she uses technology to navigate through terabytes of discovery data.

Outside of the office, Erin makes time to serve the underprivileged with her Church community. She also enjoys sports when she can find the time including, skiing, skateboard racing, golf, standup paddleboarding, and hiking.
