

JEFFREY MIHALIK

Jeffrey Mihalik is an Associate at the firm practicing Business Litigation, helping builders, developers, and contractors with insurance and construction disputes.

Jeffrey earned his law degree from the University of San Diego School of Law, where he graduated summa cum laude and served as Lead Articles Editor of San Diego Law Review.

Jeffrey has extensive experience helping clients with complex insurance, construction, bankruptcy, property, landlord/tenant law, and employment cases involving topics such as discrimination, harassment, and unlawful retaliation.

Jeffrey loves exploring new worlds as an adventurous hiker, backpacker, mountain climber, and avid reader.

- Business Litigation

EDUCATION

- J.D., University of San Diego School of Law, summa cum laude
- B.A., Cornell University, cum laude

AREAS OF PRACTICE

- Business Litigation

AWARDS AND HONORS

- University of San Diego School of Law, Faculty Honor Scholarship
- University of San Diego School of Law, Law Achievement Scholarship for Outstanding 1L Performance
- University of San Diego School of Law, Honors in Experiential Advocacy Practicum
- CALI Award, Tax, Fall 2023
- CALI Award, Education Law, Fall 2023

- CALI Award, Employment, Fall 2023
- CALI Award, Remedies, Spring 2023
- CALI Award, Employment Discrimination, Spring 2023
- CALI Award, Evidence, Fall 2022
- CALI Award, Civil Procedure, Fall 2021
- Cornell University, Pauline and Irving Tanner Dean's Scholar

PROFESSIONAL AND COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

- Intern, San Diego City Attorney's Office – Civil Division, 2023
- Intern, California Attorney General's Office – Employment and Administrative Mandate Section, 2022
- Executive Board Lead Articles Editor, San Diego Law Review, 2023-2024
- Member, San Diego Law Review, 2022-2023
- Judicial Law Clerk, US Attorney's Office – Civil Division, San Diego, 2022

ADMISSIONS

- California