

ZACHARY ROSENBERG

Litigation attorney Zach Rosenberg represents clients in business and construction controversies ranging from complex and multi-party lawsuits to simple contractor invoice disputes.

Before joining Fennemore, Zach served as a judicial clerk at the Arizona Court of Appeals for Judge Peter Swann. In law school at Arizona State University, Zach was the Executive Articles Editor for the Arizona State Law Journal, served as president of the Jewish Law Students Association, and held leadership roles in several other student organizations.

Zach is a published author in e-discovery and leverages his fondness for computers and technology to provide efficient representation to his clients.

Outside the office, Zach spends his time with his wife and children. He enjoys hiking and traveling and is a theater and science fiction fan.
