STACY PORCHÉ

Stacy Porché is an associate attorney in our Business Litigation practice group who works out of our Phoenix office. Her experience includes legal research and writing on various matters including business litigation and landlord/tenant disputes.

Stacy was born and raised in Phoenix, AZ. Dedicated to whatever she pursues, Stacy worked full-time as a legal research assistant at the Louisiana Attorney General's Office while attending law school at night. Stacy attended law school at Southern University Law Center, where she graduated fifth in her class. After graduating, Stacy worked as a Law Clerk for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Mississippi, further refining her litigation and legal research skills. With a passion for helping others, Stacy has assisted tenants facing unlawful evictions in justice courts throughout Maricopa County and is licensed to practice law in Arizona and Washington DC.

Outside of work, Stacy is actively involved in the advocacy program at Southern University Law Center as well as the Southern University Bar Prep Program where she provides one-on-one coaching to new graduates who are preparing for the Uniform Bar Exam. Stacy is dedicated to the advancement of women and people of color in the law and currently serves as the Co-Director of the Ms. JD Fellowship program. When she is not busy servicing clients, she is coaching and tutoring children or simply enjoying time traveling with family.
