LYNDSEY MAASCH

Lyndsey Maasch is an associate attorney who works in our business litigation practice group in our Phoenix office. Her work encompasses a broad range of dispute prevention and resolution matters as well as healthcare law.

Originally from Wisconsin, with attorneys in her family and her mom working as a court reporter, Lyndsey grew up talking about legal issues at the dinner table. She knew from an early age that she was destined for law school – not only to become a lawyer, but for the sheer love of learning. As an attorney, this passion for knowledge means that Lyndsey makes her clients' complex problems her own. She takes great pride in going the extra mile and always delivering the best service available; above and beyond expectations.

Lyndsey is a dedicated member of the Auxiliary Board of the Fresh Start Women's Foundation, and spends her time outside of the office furthering the organization's mission of empowering women to succeed. She recharges her batteries by spending time with her two daughters, Tatum and Baker.
