

OLIVIA WILLIAMSON

Olivia Williamson is a business litigation attorney, assisting clients with complex business litigation issues.

Starting at Fennemore as a summer associate, Olivia has extensive experience in legal research and writing. Before joining the firm, she clerked for the Honorable Kathleen M. Drakulich, where she drafted civil and criminal orders and provided real-time evaluations as to evidentiary objections and judicial rulings made during trial. She was also a judicial extern to the Honorable Barry L. Breslow and an intern at the Office of United States Senator Catherine Cortez Masto.

Olivia earned her law degree from the William S. Boyd School of Law, University of Nevada, Las Vegas. There, she was the Executive Editor of the Nevada Law Journal, Treasurer of the Organization of Women Law Students, and a Semi-Finalist in the Clark County Bar Association Moot Court Competition.

Outside of the office, Olivia can be found practicing her German, hiking in Lake Tahoe, or baking a new recipe.
