

EMILY BOUDREAU
Paralegal

Business Litigation

Spokane
P: 509.316.2129
eboudreau@fennemorelaw.com

Your potential, the absolute best you're capable of—that's the metric to measure yourself against.
Ryan Holiday, Ego Is the Enemy

EMILY BOUDREAU

Emily Boudreau is a paralegal in Fennemore's Business Litigation and Trusts and Estates practice groups.

Emily started her career in the legal field as a receptionist in 2018 for a local civil litigation firm in Spokane, Washington, and was quickly promoted to legal assistant and then eventually to paralegal. She has experience in various practice areas, including construction, business, employment, and personal injury. She also has experience with managing large amounts of files and data (including Electronically Stored Information), drafting routine pleadings, discovery, and correspondence, and preparing materials for trials, arbitrations, and other proceedings.

Emily earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in professional and creative writing from Central Washington University and a paralegal certificate from Spokane Community College. In 2022, Emily became a member of the Paralegal Advisory Committee with Spokane Community College and is currently an active member.

In her free time, Emily enjoys playing chess, sewing, hiking, and paddleboarding.

AREAS OF PRACTICE

- Business Litigation
- Trusts & Estates

EDUCATION

- B.A., Central Washington University
- Certificate in Paralegal Studies, Spokane Community College

PROFESSIONAL AND COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

- Member, Paralegal Advisory Committee at Spokane Community College
- Volunteer, Lutheran Community Services Northwest

ADMISSIONS

- Not licensed to the practice of law*