

MIRANDA FREEMAN

Miranda Freeman, an associate attorney, practices taxation, estate planning, and trust administration. She stands out for her adeptness in advanced tax minimization strategies, integrating these techniques into her estate planning practices to efficiently reduce tax liabilities for her clients. This expertise ensures that clients' wealth transfer and estate planning goals are met with favorable tax outcomes.

In addition, Ms. Freeman excels in the formation and administration of trusts. Her knowledge in this area allows for effective management and distribution of assets, providing clients with peace of mind and ensuring their estate plans are executed as intended.

EDUCATION

- J.D., University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law
- B.A., University of California, Santa Cruz

AREAS OF PRACTICE

- Business & Finance
- Tax Law

AWARDS AND HONORS

- Best Lawyers in America[®], Ones to Watch, Tax Law, Trusts and Estates, 2026
- Northern California Super Lawyers Rising Star[®], Estate & Probate, 2025
- Top 16 Oral Advocate

ARTICLES AND PRESENTATIONS

- Speaker, "Estate Planning for the Real Estate and Agricultural Property Owner (E&G)," 2025 California All-Tax Conference, California Lawyers Association, November 14, 2025

PROFESSIONAL AND COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

- Sports & Entertainment Law Society, Treasurer, 2020-2021
 - Vice President, 2021-2022

ADMISSIONS

- California