

ROI M. WALLACE

Roi M. Wallace is an attorney in Fennemore's Business Litigation group, assisting clients with professional matters.

Roi earned her law degree from Tulane University where she was actively involved in her community through various organizations. Roi was the Student Bar Association 2L and 3L class president, the social event and planning chair of the Black Law Student Association (BLSA), a Thurgood Marshall Appellate Moot Court team member, and a member of the Sports & Entertainment Law Society.

Volunteering is a passion of Roi's. She is an active volunteer with Tulane's BLSA Moot Court Team. Through her involvement in BLSA, Roi assisted members of the New Orleans community during the aftermath of Hurricane Ida, and organized book donations for incarcerated individuals. She also organized events for collegiate athletic teams to visit local hospital patients and elementary schools as a President of the Student Athlete Advisory Committee at Morgan State University.

Roi enjoys traveling, sports, music, and spending time with her nieces and nephews.
