

AMANDA GRAY

Amanda Gray is an of counsel attorney in Fennemore's Natural Resources group. She assists her clients with environmental, fuels, and various business regulations.

Amanda has in-depth experience developing and championing legislative and regulatory policies and positions, and advising and training businesses regarding environmental and regulatory compliance. She is known for her high-level communications skills and maintains relationships with elected officials, state agency leadership, and industry leaders.

Prior to joining Fennemore, Amanda was the executive director of the Arizona Petroleum Marketers Association, where she served as the primary liaison for more than 120 company owners and business leaders. She was also previously an assistant city attorney for the Minneapolis City Attorney's Office, practicing civil litigation and prevailing in two jury trials and on multiple dispositive motions in federal and state courts.

A wife and mom to three kids, Amanda loves to garden, read and visit National Parks.

EDUCATION

J.D., University of St. Thomas School of Law, magna cum laude

B.A., Arizona State University, summa cum laude

AREAS OF PRACTICE

Natural Resources

ARTICLES AND PRESENTATIONS

Speaker, "Arizona Regulatory And Legislative Forecast," Apma Annual Conference, September 2024

Panelist, "Alternative Fuel And Clean Energy Policy: Threats And Opportunities For State Engagement," National Association Of Truck Stop Owners (Natso) Fast Forward Focus Conference, October 2023

PROFESSIONAL AND COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

Treasurer, APMA Scholarship Foundation, 2017-2025

President, EMA State Executives Council, 2024

Executive Committee, EMA State Executives Council, 2021-2025

NACS Legislative Committee Member, 2020-2023

ADMISSIONS

Arizona