

CARL P. BLAINE

Carl Blaine is a partner with 35 years of experience in federal and state litigation. His areas of expertise include business, partnership, corporate, real estate, fiduciary, probate and trust, elder and dependent adult abuse, and tax litigation. He is also skilled in complex litigation, including class actions related to agricultural products, commercial, and consumer matters. Carl's track record in successfully bringing numerous jury and court trials to verdict showcases his expertise.

Before joining the firm, Carl served as a law clerk to Presiding Justice George A. Brown of the California Court of Appeal and as Deputy District Attorney in San Luis Obispo County. His extensive background provides a solid foundation for his successful practice areas in litigation.
