

General Counsel Services

Strategic, business-focused legal counsel, in step with your company's growth.

Acting as an extension of your leadership, Fennemore's General Counsel Services team provides comprehensive, practical legal solutions that are specifically tailored to advance your business goals.

LEADERSHIP

GENERAL
COUNSEL
SERVICES

BUSINESS & FINANCE

Melissa Oostmeyer
Director

Denver
PH 303.764.3706
FX 303.291.3201
moostmeyer@fennemorelaw.com

EXPERIENCE

At Fennemore, we deliver more than legal advice. We become a trusted extension of your leadership team, providing collaborative legal strategies that drive business success. Whether working directly with executives or alongside your general counsel, we integrate seamlessly into your organization, making your legal function stronger, more efficient, and easier to manage.

Our team includes former in-house attorneys who understand the real-world pressure of balancing legal risk with business priorities. We offer the agility, responsiveness, and depth of knowledge clients need, backed by the full resources of a leading law firm. With Fennemore, you gain a trusted partner capable of supporting your legal needs — from corporate governance, employment, and litigation to intellectual property, real estate, and regulatory compliance.

We take the time to understand your business from the inside out, aligning our legal strategies directly with your operational goals. Our relationships are built on trust, transparency, and a relentless focus on adding value. We are accessible, proactive, and committed to providing practical legal support that reduces risk, protects your business.

Fennemore attorneys serve as outside general counsel to clients across industries, including engineering, energy, construction, technology, healthcare, and financial services. We provide a single point of contact for all legal matters and a cost-effective and streamlined solution, eliminating the need to coordinate multiple firms. In addition, when appropriate, we offer alternative fee arrangements. With attorneys licensed throughout the United States and offices in Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Nevada, Texas, Washington, and beyond, we combine localized insight with the capabilities of a major firm to support your operations wherever you do business.

Our team helps align legal strategies with business goals and deliver measurable results that empower your team and position your business for long-term success.