

JOANNA L. PURYEAR

Joanna Puryear is an Of Counsel attorney in Fennemore's Trust & Estates practice group. She advises clients on matters related to estate and tax planning, probate, mergers and acquisitions, property sales and transfers, and general corporate matters.

Joanna brings to the table a broad scope of experience in both transactional and litigation-focused work.

An advocate in the Spokane legal community, Joanna also serves as a Commissioner Pro Tem in the Spokane Superior Court presiding over family law, domestic violence protection orders, and civil commitment matters, as well as the Ex Parte, courtroom. Prior to joining Fennemore Joanna was an of counsel attorney at Lucent Law.

EDUCATION

APR 6 Law Clerk Program

B.A., Washington State University, magna cum laude

AREAS OF PRACTICE

Trusts & Estates

ARTICLES AND PRESENTATIONS

Speaker, Guardianship CLE – RCW 11.130 Minor Guardianship Act, 2023

Speaker, Introduction to the Courts – RPC 1.6 Confidentiality of information, 2021

Speaker, Introduction to the Courts – RPC 1.18 Duties to Prospective Clients, 2020

Speaker, Family Law in the Next Decade – Washington State Relocation Act, 2019

PROFESSIONAL AND COMMUNITY AFFILIATIONS

Commissioner Pro Tem, Spokane Superior Court

Trustee, Spokane County Bar Association Board of Trustees

Past Spokane County Bar Association Young Lawyers Division President

Volunteer, Aspiring Board Member, Women Helping Women Fund

ADMISSIONS

Washington

United States District Court for the Eastern District of Washington

Idaho

United States District Court for the District of Idaho

United States Bankruptcy Court, District of Idaho

United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit