

KELCI BINAU

Kelci S. Binau is a gaming and business transactions attorney at Fennemore who helps guide U.S. and international owners and operators of casinos, pari-mutuel wagering facilities, hotels and resorts, nonrestricted and restricted gaming licensees, operators of online gaming, mobile gaming, social gaming, sports betting and sportsbooks, skill-based gaming, manufacturers and distributors, service providers, travel centers, private equity firms, traditional and non-traditional investors, Native American tribes, and executives and key employees and gaming employees through licensing, compliance, regulatory proceedings, and complex transactions.

Clients turn to Kelci when they need a trusted advocate to represent them in licensing, approvals, and compliance assistance in the development, management, acquisition, and restructuring of gaming projects in the casino and online gaming markets. She helps clients obtain and maintain business, gaming, and liquor licenses and approvals and provides guidance throughout all steps of the process, including initial applications, investigations and interviews, public hearings on suitability, and ongoing obligations to update regulators. She has experience with waivers or exemptions from licensing requirements on behalf of clients that do not exert the required control over the gaming enterprise.

She has assisted clients with designing their corporate structure, domesticating, merging and converting foreign and domestic entities, and acquiring state and city business licenses. She also assists with gaming trusts.

Kelci supports regulated firms with transactions, operational compliance, and licensing, permitting, and other proceedings before administrative agencies or other government bodies. She also has experience with assisting brokers and realtors with licensing and compliance requirements with the Nevada Real Estate Division, and Commercial and Residential lenders with compliance requirements with the Nevada Division of Mortgage Lending.
