PAUL W. JORDAN

Paul Jordan helps businesses, commercial property owners, and property management professionals navigate business, contract, real property, and commercial leasing disputes. He understands the importance of understanding client goals and tailoring the strategy for the best resolution. In the event an issue cannot be resolved through preliminary negotiations, Paul has significant experience advocating for clients through mediation, arbitration, litigation, hearings, trial, and appeals.

Business Disputes: Contract, real estate, fraud, breach of good faith, shareholder, and other business conflicts and litigation.

Real Estate Disputes: Commercial leasing and landlord-tenant, forcible entry and detainer, eviction, licensor-licensee, and other commercial real property litigation.

From 2010 to 2012, Paul served as a Peace Corps Volunteer in rural El Salvador, focusing on health education and community development. In his spare time, Paul enjoys traveling, trying a new brew (beer or coffee), and enjoying all the outdoor activities Colorado has to offer with his wife and dog, Lu.
