RIANAH GONZALES

Rianah Gonzales is a paralegal in Fennemore's Estate Planning group, dedicated to continuous learning and creating positive client experiences through clear communication and attention to detail.

Rianah started her journey in the legal field as a receptionist, where she developed communication, organizational, and customer service skills in a professional environment. Over time, Rianah gained exposure to business paralegal work before transitioning into estate planning, where she continues to grow both personally and professionally. She looks forward to absorbing new knowledge, refining my legal skills, and providing dependable support to both attorneys and clients.

In her spare time, Rianah enjoys outdoor activities such as kayaking, camping, hiking, and traveling.
