

ROBIN L. KLOMPRENS

Robin Klomprens is a tax attorney with a finance degree from the Warrington College of Business at University of Florida and a Juris Doctorate and LL.M. in Taxation from the University of Miami. Admitted to the Florida Bar in 1986 and the California Bar in 1987, she also practices before the U.S. Tax Court and the U.S. Supreme Court. Her achievements include receiving the Joanne Garvey Lifetime Achievement Award in 2019.

Renowned for her expertise in tax law, Robin excels in navigating complex tax code changes, providing her clients with up-to-date and effective legal counsel. She has contributed significantly to legal education as an adjunct professor at USF's LLM program, Golden Gate University's MS program, and currently at McGeorge School of Law. A prior member and current advisor to CLA's Tax Section Executive Committee and Estate and Gift Committee, and a member of ACTEC, she also contributes to various charitable boards. Her extensive lecturing and publications further establish her knowledge in tax law.
