STEPHANIE FUDGE

Stephanie Fudge is a Paralegal in Fennemore's Estate Planning practice group, with over fifteen years of experience supporting attorneys and clients in estate planning, trust administration, probate, and business matters. Her work is centered on assisting with trusts and wills while ensuring clients receive clear, organized, and compassionate support during significant life transitions.

After earning her paralegal certificate, Stephanie developed a strong foundation in legal research, drafting estate planning documents, client communication, and case management. Throughout her career, she collaborated closely with attorneys and legal teams to provide thoughtful, client-focused service. Stephanie takes pride in helping clients feel informed, supported, and confident by delivering responsive communication and maintaining a high level of professionalism. Her attention to detail, organizational skills, and ability to manage sensitive and confidential information have been essential in consistently meeting client needs and expectations. She is deeply committed to delivering exceptional customer service and reliable legal support.

With a focus on accuracy, empathy, and professionalism, Stephanie strives to create positive client experiences while contributing to the success of the legal team. She remains dedicated to continued growth and to building strong, lasting relationships with attorneys, colleagues, and clients alike.

Outside of the office, Stephanie enjoys spending time with family, reading, crafting, and gardening.
