

GRAHAM VAN LEUVEN

Graham Van Leuven is an attorney in our firm's Business Litigation practice group. He has a proven track record litigating multi-million-dollar lawsuits, including issues of first impression in both trial and appellate courts. Additionally, Graham has experience advising on cyber and privacy incidents and analyzing issues of liability for hundreds of cases involving sensitive personal and health records. He also has a background evaluating consumer privacy lawsuits and guiding clients through regulatory investigations in sectors ranging from technology to healthcare and public entities.

Prior to joining Fennemore, Graham was a partner in a regional law firm focused on complex insurance litigation matters, including personal injury, privacy torts, coverage and bad faith claims.
