KEVIN J. BONNER

Kevin is the Chair of the Fennemore's construction law practice and also serves as Associate General Counsel for the firm. He has more than thirty years of experience advising stakeholders in construction matters. Kevin advises contractors, design professionals, owners, and developers regarding construction issues, from the pre-construction phase through project execution. He has substantial litigation experience including disputes involving private and public contracts, lien disputes, construction and design defects, and other issues. He has negotiated and drafted contracts for construction industry professionals, and has assisted clients in resolving countless disputes outside of litigation.

Kevin also has substantial experience in a variety of commercial litigation matters, including real estate, professional negligence, water law, and bankruptcy matters.

Kevin has successfully handled bench and jury trials, arbitration hearings, administrative hearings before the Registrar of Contractors, and appeals before the Arizona Court of Appeals, the Arizona Supreme Court, the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals, and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.
