

KEVIN M. RODRIGUEZ

Kevin has over 15 years of experience representing fiduciaries, beneficiaries and nonprofit organizations in contested trust, estate, conservatorship, and elder abuse matters. He represents his clients in all phases of litigation, from pre-litigation avoidance to mediation, trial and, if necessary, appeal.

While Kevin now focuses his practice exclusively on litigation matters, he also has an LL.M. in taxation and has an extensive background in estate planning, trust and probate administration, and estate and gift taxation.

Trusts & Estates

Estate Litigation

EDUCATION

LL.M., Taxation, Golden Gate University School of Law

J.D., Santa Clara University School of Law

B.S.C., Santa Clara University

AREAS OF PRACTICE

Trusts & Estates

Estate Litigation

AWARDS AND HONORS

Best Lawyers in America[®], Litigation – Trusts and Estates, 2023-2027

ARTICLES AND PRESENTATIONS

Author, "Show Me The Money: When Can Trustees Use Trust Funds to Litigate," Contra Costa Lawyers Magazine, October 2017

Author, "A Balancing Act: The Appropriate Role of Court Appointed Counsel in Proposed Conservatorships," California Trusts & Estates Quarterly, Volume 19, Issue 1, 2013

PROFESSIONAL AND COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

Board Member, Conservation Society of California – Oakland Zoo

Board Member, Legal Assistance for Seniors

Member, East Bay Estate Planning Council

Member, Alameda County Bar Association

Member, Bar Association of San Francisco

Volunteer Member, Litigation Subcommittee, Trusts and Estates Section of the California Lawyers Association

ADMISSIONS

California