ROBIN TUCKER

Robin Tucker is a trusts and estates paralegal in Fennemore's Phoenix office. She has worked off and on in the legal field for several years. After taking a break to raise her five sons, Robin returned to full-time status about ten years ago. She works in estate planning, probate, and trust administration matters. She also has experience with business and transactional law and has worked for a handful of law firms in the Phoenix Valley.

In her spare time, Robin plays and teaches classical piano, visits art galleries, and attends performing arts, concerts, and sporting events. She especially enjoys traveling and spending time with family and friends.
