TAYLOR BURGOON

Taylor Burgoon is a business litigation attorney focusing on complex business disputes primarily in Arizona and the greater Southwest. Taylor's practice encompasses litigation and appeals in a broad range of areas, including representing government entities, businesses, and business owners in breach of contract disputes, high-risk tort defense, real property disputes, and email wire fraud scams, among others.

Taylor's competitive spirit, dedication, and honed legal skills have resulted in an impressive track record of winning cases through early motion practice and at trial. She has a passion for advocating and supporting her clients, and she enjoys the intellectual requirements of a successful litigator – tirelessly working on the legal reasoning and analysis of a case.

Taylor has earned recognition in Best Lawyers in America®, Ones to Watch from 2022 to 2026 and was named a Southwest Rising Star from 2022 to 2024. In 2025, AZ Business Magazine recognized her as one of the 50 Rising Stars in Law. In 2026, Taylor was featured in AZ Business Leaders magazine as an Emerging Leader in law.

As a proud member of the Fiesta Bowl Yellow Jacket Committee and the TGen Ambassador program, Taylor is committed to giving back and making a difference in the Phoenix community. Outside of her work as a business litigator, she recharges her batteries through music, yoga, hiking, and traveling.
